

2006 Prince George's Classic Schedule of Events

Wednesday September 27, 2006

Welcome Reception Hosted by Prince George's Black Chamber of Commerce

This is the official launch of the Prince George's Classic Weekend!

Greenbelt Marriott

Greenbelt, MD 20770

Time: 6PM - 10PM

An event that you cannot afford to miss! This is the best time to meet the business and political leaders from Prince George's County and the Washington/Baltimore metropolitan area. In the last two years, the Welcome Reception had appearances from Lt. Governor Michael Steele, County Executive Jack Johnson, and both universities' Presidents. Music, dancing, food and drinks make this event a wonderful start to a great weekend.

Friday September 29, 2006

Harlem Renaissance Golf Classic

Cross Creek Golf Club

12800 Bay Hill Drive

Beltsville, MD 20705

Time: 9AM

Enjoy a great day of golf for a wonderful cause! Golfers will be treated to a fun-filled day of food, beverages and prizes. Participate in the "Closest to the Pin" and "Longest Drive" challenges for a chance to win amazing prizes. An awards ceremony will be held immediately after the tournament. Proceeds from the Golf Classic will support scholarships for Prince George's County students attending Historically Black Colleges & Universities. To register and for more information, please visit www.pghrf.org/golf.

Prince George's Classic Battle of the Bands

Comcast Center at University of Maryland

College Park, MD 20742

Time: 7PM - 10PM

For the last two years, the Battle of the Bands event was considered one of the highlights of the Classic Weekend. High School marching bands from Prince George's County, Baltimore, MD, and Washington, DC will showcase their amazing musical talent through intense choreographed routines. Participating high schools include Oxon Hill, Largo, Crossland, Milford Mill Academy, Ballou, Flowers and special guest Bowie State University. Expect the Battle of the Bands to once again be a cornerstone of the Prince George's Classic Weekend!
